Welcome to the 2014 Botanical PaperWorks catalog.

Each and every product in this catalog is “plantable” meaning the lucky recipient can plant the greeting card, postcard or calendar and the paper will compost away and grow into flowers, vegetables or herbs. That’s because the stationery products are printed directly onto seed paper, also called “plantable paper” or they have a die-cut seed paper shape affixed to the front.

The fun of plantable seed paper stationery is that you’re sending the gift of flowers with every card. And the paper is eco-friendly too so you’re creating beauty, not waste, when you use these stationery products.

Enjoy these collections of plantable stationery and thank you for choosing Botanical PaperWorks.

For example, if you are ordering two styles of journals, each style/color must be ordered in 3's.

Single cards such as Sweet Fruit cards (pg. 8) should be ordered in multiples of 6 per design. For example, if you are ordering the Apple and Pear single cards from the Sweet Fruit collection (pg. 8), each of the Apple and Pear cards need to be ordered in 6's.

We will correct all orders to adhere to these order multiples.

SEED PAPER THAT GROWS

 BOTANICAL PAPERWORKS
SEED PAPER THAT GROWS

seed paper at work

In February of 2012, we planted a piece of seed paper in our very own offices here at Botanical PaperWorks. The piece was about the size of a business card, and as you can see in the photos above, we had great success!

Within a week we were seeing little sprouts, and a few weeks after that, we had a whole bunch of buds and blooms. Before we knew it, we had enough flowers to make a bouquet of these beautifully delicate wildflowers!
